

MICHAEL DAVID

EST. | WINERY | 1984

6th Sense Syrah

2017 | Lodi Appellation

TASTING NOTES

With velvety hues, the 2017 vintage will surely awaken your senses! Aromas of blackberry, butterscotch and milk chocolate are laced with just a hint of cured meat and black cardamom. Black raspberry, dried cranberry and cola flavors carry through the lengthy, sultry finish of this full-bodied Syrah.

HISTORY

The Phillips brothers planted one of the first Syrah vineyards in California in 1982. With Michael's son Kevin continuing the Phillips grape growing tradition into the 6th generation, this Syrah vineyard was one of the first he tended to as our Vineyard Manager. If you turn the bottle around you will see Kevin's eye looking out from the inside of the bottle, making sure the wine is being enjoyed!
